

A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

As some of you may already know, the director of The Family Empowerment Program, Marquan Jackson, has accepted an exciting opportunity to serve as the Director of Resident Services at Arlington Partnership for Affordable Housing. While we are, of course, saddened to lose Marquan, we are excited by the work he will do to further resident services and supportive housing in his new position.

During his nearly nine years at The Family Empowerment Program, Marquan collaborated with colleagues and stakeholders to design and develop quality programming and broaden our reach and positive impacts for residents and community partners.

Marquan’s tenure at FEP ended June 30th. FEP will now be led by long time FEP Assistant Director, Mark Hammond. When asked about the success of FEP, Marquan shared “I have no doubt that Mark will do an outstanding job as Director, as he continues to grow the team and deliver quality programming for YHC families.”

“I’m excited to take the lessons about partnership, commitment, and leading with love I have learned at the Family Empowerment Program and in this incredible community to my work in Arlington, VA. I leave knowing that the Family Empowerment will continue its important work to deliver for YHC residents and lead the way in resident service programs.” -- Marquan Jackson

The YHC and FEP wishes Marquan the best in his new position, with gratitude for the contributions he has made in expanding and deepening our work.

Sincerely,

Zac Fosler, Executive Director/
CEO
